DETAILED ACTION

1. This application has been examined.
2. The CPA and amendment filed 5/5/03 has been entered.
3. The Benefit under U.S.C. 120 to U.S. Patent 6,184,881 requested has been granted, and accordingly the 102 rejection has been removed.

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 1-2, 5-10, 12-16, 18-22 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 1-17 of U. S. Patent No. 6,184,881 since the claims, if allowed, would improperly extend the "right to exclude" already granted in the patent.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter, as follows:

Claim 1: visually delineating a relationship between related graphical objects in a graphical user interface (see '881, claim 1 lines 1-3), associating at least one icon with at least two diverse but related graphical objects having an associated color scheme (see '881 claim 1, the background color is the color scheme – in fact color scheme is even broader), when one object is displayed, displaying the icon within it (see '881 claim 1, retaining representation of first icon within the graphical image), wherein the displayed graphical objects are recognizable as related by the persistence of the icon with the associated color scheme in the displayed graphical objects (see '881 claim 1 last 5 lines)

Claim 2: see '881, claim 3.

Claim 5: see '881, claim 15.

Claim 7: see arguments for claim 1

Claim 8: see for example '881, claim 10

Claim 9: see '881, claim 15.

Claim 10: this is recited in the alternative, thus one object may be a window and the other may be an icon. See '881, claim 9.

Claim 12: see '881, claim 9

Claim 13: see '881, claim 15.

Claim 14: see '881, claim 12. The series of templates forms a wizard.

Claim 15: see '881, claim 9 note especially the graphical notation of the first icon.

Claim 16: see '881, claim 3.

Claim 18: see '881, claim 15.

Claim 19: see '881, claim 17.

Claim 20: see '881, claim 12. The series of templates forms a wizard.

Claim 21: see '881, claim 9 note especially the graphical notation of the first icon.

Claim 22: see '881, claim 15.

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant was prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application during prosecution of the application which matured into a patent. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

6. Note that even with the claim to Benefit, the Double Patenting rejection still applies.

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Steven P Sax whose telephone number is (571) 272-4072. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday thru Friday, 8:30 AM - 5:00 PM.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Kristine Kincaid can be reached on (571) 272-4063. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
